Discreet Love

So discreet you mark your slave
Cut the rope and in bed you lay
Your eyes tell me what you feel
Don't disturb the way it steals

Mask your lies from the heated sun
Make sure you know what love has won
You make me feel a desperate confusion
No connection to this mental illusion

Take me over, take me now
Don't know when, don't know how
Take me over, take me now
Don't make me fall over, fall over, fall over

I want your body, I have deep needs
Push me, pull me, I know what it means
Make sure the lock is on and what I believe

Take me over, take me now
Don't know when, don't know how
Take me over, take me now
Don't know when, don't know how
Take me over, take me now
Don't make me fall over, fall over, fall over
